Description: A sun-filled two-bedroom, two-bathroom loft with a private roof deck and two skylights, set on a classic cast-iron block at 277 Church Street in the heart of Tribeca, New York. This is a home defined by light, scale, and outdoor space, a rare full-floor rental where sky and city are part of the everyday. Enter into an expansive open living and dining great room, crowned by an overhead skylight and warmed by an original exposed-brick wall. Oversized windows frame downtown rooftop views, soaring ceilings lift the space, and pale maple hardwood floors run throughout. The living room flows directly into a generous kitchen, outfitted with natural maple cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, a gas range, dishwasher, and a central island with breakfast-bar seating, the natural gathering point of the home. The split-bedroom layout places privacy at both ends of the floor. The primary suite is a quiet retreat beneath its own skylight, generously proportioned with room for a king bed and a sitting area, a deep walk-in closet, and an en-suite spa bath featuring a soaking tub, a separate glass-enclosed shower, and a double granite vanity. The second bedroom, at the opposite end, offers a bright exposure, city views, and its own walk-in closet. A second full bathroom, finished in white subway tile with a glass-mosaic accent and a tub-shower, serves guests and the second bedroom. A dedicated laundry room with a full-size washer and dryer, a coat closet, and a wide gallery hall complete the interior. The showpiece is above. A sprawling private roof deck unfolds under open sky with sweeping Tribeca and downtown Manhattan views, room to lounge and dine al fresco, and the kind of outdoor space almost never found in a rental at this address. Set on Church Street between Franklin and White, the loft sits in the middle of Tribeca's cobblestone charm, moments from the Franklin Street 1 train and the Canal Street subway lines, and steps from the neighborhood's celebrated restaurants, galleries, and Hudson River Park. Renovated interiors, in-unit laundry, two walk-in closets, and private outdoor space make this one of Tribeca's most livable loft rentals, at 277 Church Street. The building offers modern conveniences like Spectrum internet, a voice intercom system, and pet allowances on a case-by-case basis. With only three residential units, privacy and exclusivity are guaranteed. Please note this is a walk-up building. All utilities are managed directly by the resident, allowing you to customize your usage to fit your lifestyle. The landlord charges one fee in connection with this rental, which is a $20 credit check fee. This fee is paid directly to the credit reporting service only after your application has been reviewed. After credit is approved, the tenant will provide one month's rent and one month's security deposit to the landlord by cashier's checks at lease signing.

Perfectly positioned where Greenwich Village, the West Village, SoHo, and Hudson Square meet, this striking home offers a thoughtful blend of privacy, natural light, and downtown sophistication. A Juliet balcony with an integrated planter system and retractable stainless steel seating adds a charming outdoor accent while enhancing the home's connection to the surrounding streetscape. The chef's kitchen is appointed with custom Italian Poliform Varenna Asia cabinetry in graphite, stainless steel countertops and backsplash, a center island with stool overhang, Sub-Zero refrigerator, Miele stainless steel gas range, Miele oven, Miele range hood, fully integrated Miele dishwasher, hidden Sharp microwave, Dornbracht fittings, recessed lighting, and under-cabinet luminaires. The primary suite spans approximately 369 square feet and features a walk-in closet with pocket doors and an en-suite bath finished with Italian Axor Citterio fixtures, dark-stained walnut custom cabinetry, White Thassos marble, black slate and Walker Zanger tile, dual Kohler sinks, a Kohler soaking tub, Toto dual-flush toilet, recessed lighting, and wall-mounted LED lighting strips. The second bedroom is well-proportioned and enjoys tree-top views, while the guest bath is finished with dark stone, walnut cabinetry, Axor Citterio fixtures, Kohler fittings, a custom mirror and medicine cabinet, Toto toilet, and a glass-enclosed oversized shower. Additional features include a Unitone 3000 security/video intercom system, CAT5 wiring with built-in wireless modems, Mitsubishi City-Multi zoned central heating and air conditioning, and a private 45-square-foot basement storage unit. Set in the heart of Greenwich Village, 1 Seventh Avenue South places you moments from downtown Manhattan's best restaurants, cafés, boutiques, cultural destinations, Washington Square Park, the Hudson River waterfront, SoHo, the West Village, and Hudson Square.
